

Rubber Duck Awards Criteria

We welcome schools and kura to submit games that uphold Te Tiriti o Waitangi, and Te Ao Māori values.

Step 1:

Step 2:

- 2021 Submissions can only be from ākonga in the Canterbury area.
- Games must promote Te Ao Māori value of Kaitiakitanga (guardianship).
- Games can be in any language.
- Games that have aspects that may be offensive to others will not be considered. This is up to the judge's discretion.
- Gamefroot must be used for the digital design of the game.
- This is for school-aged ākonga, kaiako support is encouraged.
- Entries are welcomed from individual/groups/whole class.
- Each game must tell an Aotearoa centric story (this could be about you).
- All game entries must be published in the Rubber Duck Award Club in Gamefroot.
- Games must be fully playable.
- Games must have at least one level.
- Games must have a start screen.
- Games must have a game-over screen.
- Games must incorporate an individual or group mihi (this could be in the credits section).
- Games must have 3 core game parts including:
 - Player
 - Setting
 - Objective
- There will be bonus points for additional game parts (link to cards).
- All images, sounds, names, and icons must be reliable and ethically sourced.

